OFFER CONDITIONS

- Alfalfa, Sorghum, Canola and Sunflower seed program closes to new early registrations and in-season invoicing on June 30, 2027. Early registration dollars may be invoiced until July 31, 2027
- Any Nutrien Ag Solutions seed treatment used in conjunction with seed financed under this offer is also eligible for financing
- Growers may only participate in one financing program on each unit of seed
- Growers must have an active trait license for seed purchased

BRIDGE FINANCING

- Nutrien Financial customers may register a commitment to lock in the best terms, rates & incentives of the program year, before a prior year's bill is due, without increasing a credit line. Accounts may not bridge more than the total credit line and must have available credit at time of invoicing.
- Any early registrations & incentives will be canceled if prior year's balances are not paid & applied by the next, month-end statement date, including any accrued interest or past due finance charges, after due in full. If canceled, customers may re-register once their account is in good standing. Current program terms, rates and incentives will apply at the time of the new registration.
